FIRST GAME

The first game started off good. With stopped the visitors. Clemens fanned when as the first man at the bat, but Hack Eibel drove the offering into the right-field wall and took two bags. Hendryx took one on the shoulder, and

Keating lost his control and walked The locals had a bad let-down a hard single, and the net result was that Thompson, Trout, Krichell and Truesdale registered Murray flew out to Hendryx and ended the frame A two-bagger by Thompson, who went in to pitch in the seventh, and a three-bagger by Blackburn right after it, added another run in the In the ninth frame Truesdale eight. # SECOND GAME

The second game was a pitchers battle between Ross and Russell, until Crabbile and then Thompson relieved Russell. It was a mixed up affair, with the visitors having the edge all the way through.

way through.

In the first inning they made two runs before Ross got settled good.
With one man out Birmingham singled. Murray doubled and scored him. Murray scored when Graham singled and got out himself when Hendryx threw to Ross who caught Graham as he turned back to first. The locals made one in the first frame. Clemer was hit by a pitched ball. Hendryx advanced both on a perfect sacrifice and Clemens tallied on Bankston's in-field out. McDermott ended the frame by going out on a pop fly to short stop.

Neither side did anything until the seventh inning when Richmond took the lead. Priest walked and stole sec laid down a perfect one. At this stage of the game, Manager Smith called upon Kelliher to deliver the goods, After looking over a couple of offerings Keiliher sent the ball to right center field for three bags and Priest walked over. Clemens lifted a long one to field and Kelliher crossed with Crabble went in to pitch and allowed singles by Truesdale and Birmingham in such iton. He was jerked and Rhoadd look his place. A wild pitch advance, both men and a short fly to Bankston, who made a sorry throw the plate, allowed Truesdale to tie to the plate, allowed Truesdale to tie the score. Richmond could not score in the eighth inning, though the bases were filled, with only one man down. Priest then fanned, and Reynolds, plach-litting for O'Donnell, sent an easy grounder to shortstop. The game was called at the end of the eighth on account of darkness, and the score was left at three runs each.

BIRDS AND BISONS DIVIDE

BALTIMORE, MD., August 12 .- The irds and Bisons went fifty-fifty on day's bargain bill, the locals takes the first game, 9 to 8, and the visors the second, 6 to 3. The Orioles found Pennock and Gaw easy in the opener, and had the night cap apparently cinched until the ninth, when Buñalo came in and slammed Crowell for four runs. The hitting of

Richmond Star Making Good

Richmond fans are watching with considerable interest the return of the Cuban to the New York Yankees. Bill Donovan's machine, which was fighting around the top in the American League race, suddenly went bad when fate threw a monkeywrench in the gears. With many of the first-string men of the lineup out of the game with injuries, the Yankees were forced to recall several men, among them being Urban Shocker, star hurler for the Toronto lads, and Arragon. Arragon is holding down third base in place of Home-Run Baker, who is injured.

The playing off of the postponed games in the various leagues yesterday resulted in very little, save to mix things up all the more. The Central League standing was turned completely around vesterday by the defeat of the T. W. Wood & Sons' team at the hands of Kocen's Boosters and the de-feat of the Woodall & Quarles team by the Richmond Cedar Works.

One more game is to be played be-fore the schedule of the Central League will be complete. T. W. Wood & Sons and Richmond Cedar Works will have to play off a tie game on Wednesday Should the afternoon at Byrd Park. Seedmen win they will be tied for first honors with Kocens, and will have to play another game to decide the championship.
